HUMANITIES/LITERARY SCIENCES

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

The degree course in Humanities offers an interdisciplinary programme, addressing the diverse needs of contemporary society. It is based on a critical awareness of human cultural products, at various stages in history.

The course is organised into two curricula providing the credits needed for a teacher career path and to meet the job market's need for new cultural and professional roles.

The core, course-related and supplementary disciplines combine theoretical studies with practical activities and workshops in order to achieve the teaching aims. They include the following four study areas:

1. Classical and Modern Literature;
2. Linguistic-Philological and Communication Studies;
3. History, Geography and Social Studies;
4. Visual Arts and Performance.

In particular, the Linguistic, Literary and Historical Studies curriculum, with its focus on linguistic-philological, literary and historical subjects, offers students the professional skills they need to work in the communication, service and culture industry.

The Modern Literature, Arts and Entertainment curriculum includes art and history, performance arts, sociology of communication, as well as languages and culture. It offers an overall methodological training in the fields of cultural tourism, event management, and enhancement of the artistic and environmental heritage.
